

Question 1Answer: c

The purpose of National Child Day is to promote awareness about the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. The Government of Canada works collaboratively with provinces, territories and Canadians to promote and protect children's rights, and encourages Canadians to celebrate National Child Day on November 20th.